

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – 4 August 2024

Thought for the Week

Today's Gospel passage follows on from the miracle of the feeding of the five thousand. Whilst the people's physical hunger had been satiated, they were still looking for "signs," being unable to recognise in their minds and hearts the miracle that had been worked and therefore unable to recognise who Jesus is. Jesus reminds them that, as we heard in our First Reading today, it was God who gave his people the Manna in the desert – the bread from heaven that sustained them on their journey to the promised land. In the same way, he gives his people, then and now, "the true bread... which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." That bread is the bread of life – Jesus himself.

When we open ourselves to receiving Jesus in our lives, something amazing happens. As Jesus says, "He who comes to me will never be hungry; he who believes in me will never thirst." He is talking here not so much of transient physical hunger and thirst but of the deep spiritual need we have as human beings to be close to God. Jesus is Immanuel, God-with-us: he came among us to enable us to come close once more to his Father.

At every Mass, Jesus continues to give himself for us as the perfect sacrifice and the bread of heaven who brings us eternal life: let us always recognise him as our Lord and Saviour, the One our world so urgently needs. Let us worship him and receive him with renewed faith, so that we can proclaim him ever more effectively in the world today.

Fr Phillip

Parish Secretary

Friday the 26 July was Samia’s last day as parish secretary in Ascot - we thank her for her work and commitment. We wish her well in her new employment. For a trial period the Parish Secretary at Windsor (Patricia) will take on a joint role of secretary in both Windsor and Ascot. This will require an adjustment for both Parishes with the times the Parish secretary is available.

So from the 30 July she will be present as follows:

Ascot: Thursday 09:00 - 10:30 & Friday 14:30 - 16:00

Windsor: Tuesday 09:00 - 14:00

Thursday 11:00 - 16:00

Friday 09:00 - 13:30

With the joy of modern technology Patricia will be able to access the emails from both St Francis and St Edward’s Parishes from both offices. Emails will be dealt with on three days a week. This is a trial, and we will make adjustments, as necessary.

We want to ensure both offices remain open and accessible. This was not a planned move in the light of the coming together of our Parishes - but it may prove helpful as we become one Parish. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

How can you help our Parish?

We come to church to praise God and there are many ways in which we can do this, not just kneeling in prayer. Actions in His name matter too. In this respect our Stewards and Collection Counters praise God with their actions. Could you help with one of these ministries once every few weeks?

The more people we have, the less onerous is the task. If so, please let one of the stewards know or contact the Parish Office. Many thanks.

Thank you

'I have been overwhelmed by the generosity and kindness of everyone in the lead up to, and the days following, my ordination last Saturday. The ceremony itself was deeply moving and it was wonderful to see so many from the parish in the cathedral. The hard work of planning behind the scenes, whether arranging the bus to transport people, the preparation of the singers to help produce such wonderful music, or the efficiency of the hospitality team for the reception on Sunday, to name but three, were all examples of our community using our time, talents and treasures. They all contributed to a memorable weekend for me personally and our whole parish community – thank you. Thank you also to all those who have arranged Masses to be said, have prayed, sent gifts or cards, all of which are greatly appreciated. I look forward to serving all in Ascot and Windsor in the coming days, weeks and years, alongside Fr David, Fr Phillip and Dcn George - God bless us all.' Stephen
